

Quantity Surveyors International First Thursday CPD Club Webinar

Title: Advance JV v ENISCA Ltd [2022EWHC1152(TCC)] - Notices

Date: Thursday, 5 February 2026

Time: 0800-0900 UK time

Keith Blizzard will give a talk on Advance JV v ENISCA Ltd in which Mrs Justice Joanna Smith DBE, at paragraph 47, sets out a summary of the law on interpretation of notices which forms a useful, practical guide for those sending payment notices, receiving payment notices and for adjudicators deciding disputes in relation to payment notices.

Presenter: Keith Blizzard BSc(Hons) DipArb FRICS FCIQB FCIARB FFB (Hon) FQSi

With a wealth of experience over more than 30 years in every aspect of construction law, Keith runs his own company specialising in adjudication, arbitration and mediation. As well as being a highly experienced construction expert accustomed to dealing with contentious issues, Keith is a chartered quantity surveyor, chartered construction manager, chartered arbitrator, panel adjudicator, accredited and panel mediator, accredited dispute board member, forensic surveyor and experienced lecturer. His expertise in adjudication and arbitration have led him to be not only in demand in those roles but also to become a visiting lecturer at universities, including in Helsinki, Sheffield and Birmingham, and to be asked to speak at conferences in the UK, Europe, the Middle East and Asia, as well as tutoring post-graduates acquiring professional qualifications. Because he has considerable experience of the whole construction process, he is able to help clients to avoid disputes before, during and following work on-site and can help to resolve any problems that arise to make sure that their commercial interests are protected as well as ensuring that they do not compromise their position by their own actions. Keith's abilities in this area have been recognised and he is an RICS Accredited Dispute Board Member.

Reservations: To reserve a place at this free CPD event, simply email cpd@theqsi.com

www.theqsi.com